Pastor's Corner

Lately I have enjoyed cooking and baking. It is not something that was part of my lifestyle for many years. My lifestyle thinking in this area was let someone else do this task. As I now realize that was a loss on my part. Here is a recipe for ours lives for the coming year as we attempt to place the bad "recipes" of last year behind us.

Take twelve fine, full-grown months; see that these are thoroughly free from old memories of bitterness, rancor and hate, cleanse them completely from every clinging spite; pick off all specks of pettiness and littleness; in short, see that these months are freed from all the past—have them fresh and clean as when they first came from the great storehouse of Time. Cut these months into thirty or thirty-one equal parts. Do not attempt to make up the whole batch at one time (so many persons spoil the entire lot this way) but prepare one day at a time.

Into each day put equal parts of faith, patience, courage, work (some people omit this ingredient and so spoil the flavor of the rest), hope, fidelity, liberality, kindness, rest (leaving this out is like leaving the oil out of the salad dressing— don't do it), prayer, meditation, and one well-selected resolution. Put in about one teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a pinch of folly, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor.

I Am the New Year. God loves to stand by our side as we work together with Him in bringing a delicious recipe to our lives, families and church community.

Pastor Meager
