Luke 5:5

Simon answered, "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing! But at your word I will lower the nets..."

We have worked hard all night... But at your word...

this way? The real wrestling comes from having faith in my own efforts to work out the struggle versus having faith in Jesus's efforts in the area of your own personal failed experiences. Knowing that you can't "catch anything" from the situation, but having willingness to allow God to work in the situation instead. There is a certain amount of pride that must be swallowed to allow someone to do more for you than what you are capable of doing on your own. Putting aside this pride is an internal struggle in areas that I think I have control, but allowing Jesus to have control over these areas in our lives is when we are fully able to realize that He is God and we are not. We are sinners and in our attempt to distance ourselves because of our own shame and imperfection, we experience a God who accepts our weaknesses and turns them into a testimony for what He is capable of doing through each seemingly impossible situation... What an amazing Jesus we have.

More recently, he has been working with the ride share companies. Uber and Lyft, which is how he has "picked up" many ladies, even though he considers himself a shy person. He enjoys movies, especially Sci-Fi and action movies like Star Trek. Looking back, Ray admits that it was difficult to grow up in the U.S. without knowing any English. He is grateful for the Styadi family who had a positive impact on his childhood. Leslie and Frank Styadi and their family always reached out to the Tan family and became an extended family for Ray and his siblings. He believes that if it were not for Leslie and Frank's friendship during difficult teen years at NPAA, he and his brother. Rubin, would not have been as
