Having Faith

Having Faith can be spoken of in terms of “trusting and treasuring” God. We believe that God is who he said he is and as a result we believe (trust) him to do everything that he has promised. Further, because he is infinitely glorious, we treasure him above any and everything...

To combine trusting and treasuring I think we have the incorporation of our head, heart and will. We see our brokenness, deficiency, and hopelessness without a mediator...then God graciously shows us Jesus. He is our life! By his dying and doing we are made alive, declared righteous, adopted, sanctified, kept, and will ultimately be presented as holy, blameless and beyond reproach before God almighty the righteous judge (Col. 1.21 ; Jude 24-25).

We can see both of these come together in many places in the Bible but let me take the 28th Psalm for example.

“The Lord is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.” (Psalm 28:7)

Notice the Psalmist trusts in God and then he treasures him (exults). This exulting is worshipping, rejoicing, delighting, and being moved by the supremacy of God. This is why he continues on to brag upon the work of God in the life of his people:

“The Lord is the strength of his people; he is the saving refuge of his anointed. Oh, save your people and bless your heritage! Be their shepherd and carry them forever.” (Psalm 28:8-9)

Biblical faith has always looked the same. We look away from ourselves and unto the God who has revealed himself, made promises, acted powerfully, showcased his supremacy, and won our loyalty. So we believe —We trust and treasure God!
