living to love like Christ

The term "Son of Man" is one of the most important names given to Jesus. But what does it mean?

Some have thought it refers to Jesus' humanity. That He was fully human is beyond doubt. But is that the primary meaning of the term? Others have thought it was just a common expression to humbly refer to one's self. If that is true, Jesus is the only one who ever referred to Himself that way.

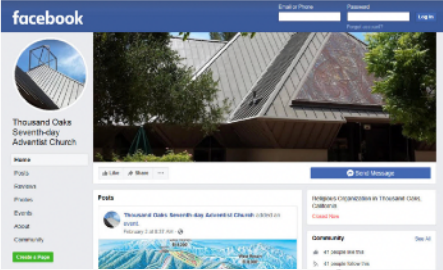

Others of us, however, letting the Bible be its own interpreter, have noticed something of greater significance. For example, Ezekiel, who is called "Son of Man" repeatedly, was a PRIEST (Eze.1:3). The function of a priest is to mediate between the worshipers and God. More than that, throughout Ezekiel's prophecies, the Lord calls him "Son of Man" whenever Ezekiel acts out IN HIS OWN PERSON Israel's past and future -- Ezekiel as "Son of Man" is a representative, model figure, acting in behalf of the whole people.

In Daniel 7:13 (remember, Daniel was a contemporary of Ezekiel), we see the same idea: the "Son of Man" comes to the Ancient of Days to receive a kingdom. In the interpretation provided by the angel, it is the people of God who receive it.

This gives the supreme clue about the person and work of Jesus -- He goes to His Father IN OUR BEHALF as our REPRESENTATIVE, and receives for us that which we do not deserve and cannot legally receive. The term "Son of Man," then, reveals Christ as our Substitute and Surety before God. Everything Christ receives is ours, by grace through faith, because, as our "Son of Man," He represents US to His Father and acts in our behalf. He is our ADVOCATE (1 John 2:1-2). He is our Righteousness.
